The image displays five distinct guitar rhythm patterns, each consisting of a musical staff and a corresponding TAB line. Above each staff are handwritten arrows indicating the strumming direction (up or down). The patterns are as follows:

- Pattern 1 (Chill Out): Features a steady, slow strumming pattern with a tempo of 80 bpm. The TAB line shows a consistent sequence of fret numbers (0, 2, 2, 1, 0, 0).
- Pattern 2 (Walk Along): Shows a more complex, walking bass-like rhythm with a mix of down and up strokes. The TAB line includes fret numbers 0, 2, 2, 1, 1, 0, 0.
- Pattern 3 (Pop Rock): Characterized by a driving, energetic strumming pattern. The TAB line uses fret numbers 0, 2, 2, 1, 0, 0.
- Pattern 4 (Strummed Ballad): Emphasizes a slower, more melodic strumming style. The TAB line uses fret numbers 0, 2, 2, 1, 1, 0, 0.
- Pattern 5 (Bounce Along): Features a bouncy, rhythmic strumming pattern. The TAB line uses fret numbers 0, 2, 2, 1, 1, 0, 0.
